We Honor our Parents . . .

To our loving parents, we bequeath our love and our sincerest thanks, for we know that without their help and guidance through these years, we could not have succeeded.

Dedicated to our Patients . . .

You are the ones who gave us confidence and courage to push onward when our spirits were down and the "going" was rough. For the words, "Thank you, Nurse", —we thank you.

1 East

Mrs. Ward, Ward Secretary; Mrs. Betty Hall, R.N., Head Nurse.

Although 1 East is termed the "Convalescent Ward", one often finds a variety of minor surgical patients and emergency cases treated here.

1 West

Miss Janet Harris, R.N., Head Nurse, works diligently with her staff to provide the best possible nursing care for the various conditions and illnesses found on 1 West.

2 East

Mrs. Scott, R.N., Head Nurse, Mrs. Eads, R.N., Mrs. Courtney, R.N., and Brenda Franklin, Senior Student, check the kardex in the afternoon to make sure their assignments have been completed.

Surgical floor is constantly shrouded with the hustle and bustle in caring for patients preoperatively and postoperatively.

2 West

Mrs. Lois Modlin, R.N., Head Nurse. It looks as if this patient is getting plenty of attention.

Obstetrics

Mrs. Huffman, R.N., and Mrs. Overcash, R.N., look over a birth certificate, as Mrs. Clayton, R.N., obstetrics supervisor, looks on.

Pediatrics

Kids are the greatest—sometimes!

Housekeeping Department

The maids and janitors under the direction of Mrs. Elma P. Lucas and Mrs. Pearl D. Kearns help to keep H.P.M.H. "hospital clean".

4 East 4 West

Betty Kidd, R.N., and Susie Wicker, Senior Student, finish their charting as Mrs. Williams, R.N., Head Nurse, processes orders.

Fourth floor, the medical unit of H.P.M.H., seems to always be filled with patients needing the extra treatment found only in a hospital. Those working on this floor are gifted with much patience and the ability to give plenty of "tender, loving care."

Mrs. Shaw, R.N., Head Nurse, knows there is always work to be done on 4 West.

Emergency Room

Dr. Douglas patches up an arm injury as Mrs. Juska, Head Nurse, and R. Boedicker, S.N., assist.

Central Supply

Sterile supplies and hospital equipment are kept in readiness by the hard working personnel of Central Supply.

X-Ray

Our x-ray technicians are kept busy helping the doctors make the right diagnosis. After all, "One picture is worth a thousand words."

Physical Therapy

Physical therapists demonstrate equipment used to rehabilitate arm and shoulder muscles.

Laboratory

"It will be just one little stick." are familiar words to the laboratory technicians as they begin the series of tests done for each patient admitted to H.P.M.H.

Operating Room

The scrub nurse must be alert and careful as she assists the doctor without breaking the sterile technique.

The O.R. suite can be found bustling with activity no matter what the time of day or night. Many lives have been saved since surgical means have been used to treat injuries and illnesses.

O.R. Orderlies

Skilled, friendly, and always "on their toes".

Recovery Room

Mrs. Hutchens supervises the reaction of each patient coming from the operating room.

Private Duty Nurses

The private duty nurses are an invaluable asset to the patients who need constant attention by a skilled member of the nursing staff.

Maintenance

Every piece of equipment must be kept in working order.

Nurses Aides

Ever-ready to assist the nurse with her heavy work load.

Orderlies

A strong back is needed for heavy work.

Ward Secretaries

The ward secretaries of each unit stay busy taking the load of paper work off the shoulders of the head nurses.

Soda Shop

The friendly staff in the soda shop help make the day seem brighter for patients, visitors, and hospital staff as they serve their delicious snacks and drinks.

Diet Kitchen

Mr. Nipper supervises the cooking and service of food after Mrs. Holbrook, Dietitian, plans the menus.

Switchboard Operators

Each time one picks up a telephone receiver, the pleasant voice of the operator reaches his ear. These courteous and helpful women play an invaluable part in the communication system of the hospital.

Social Worker

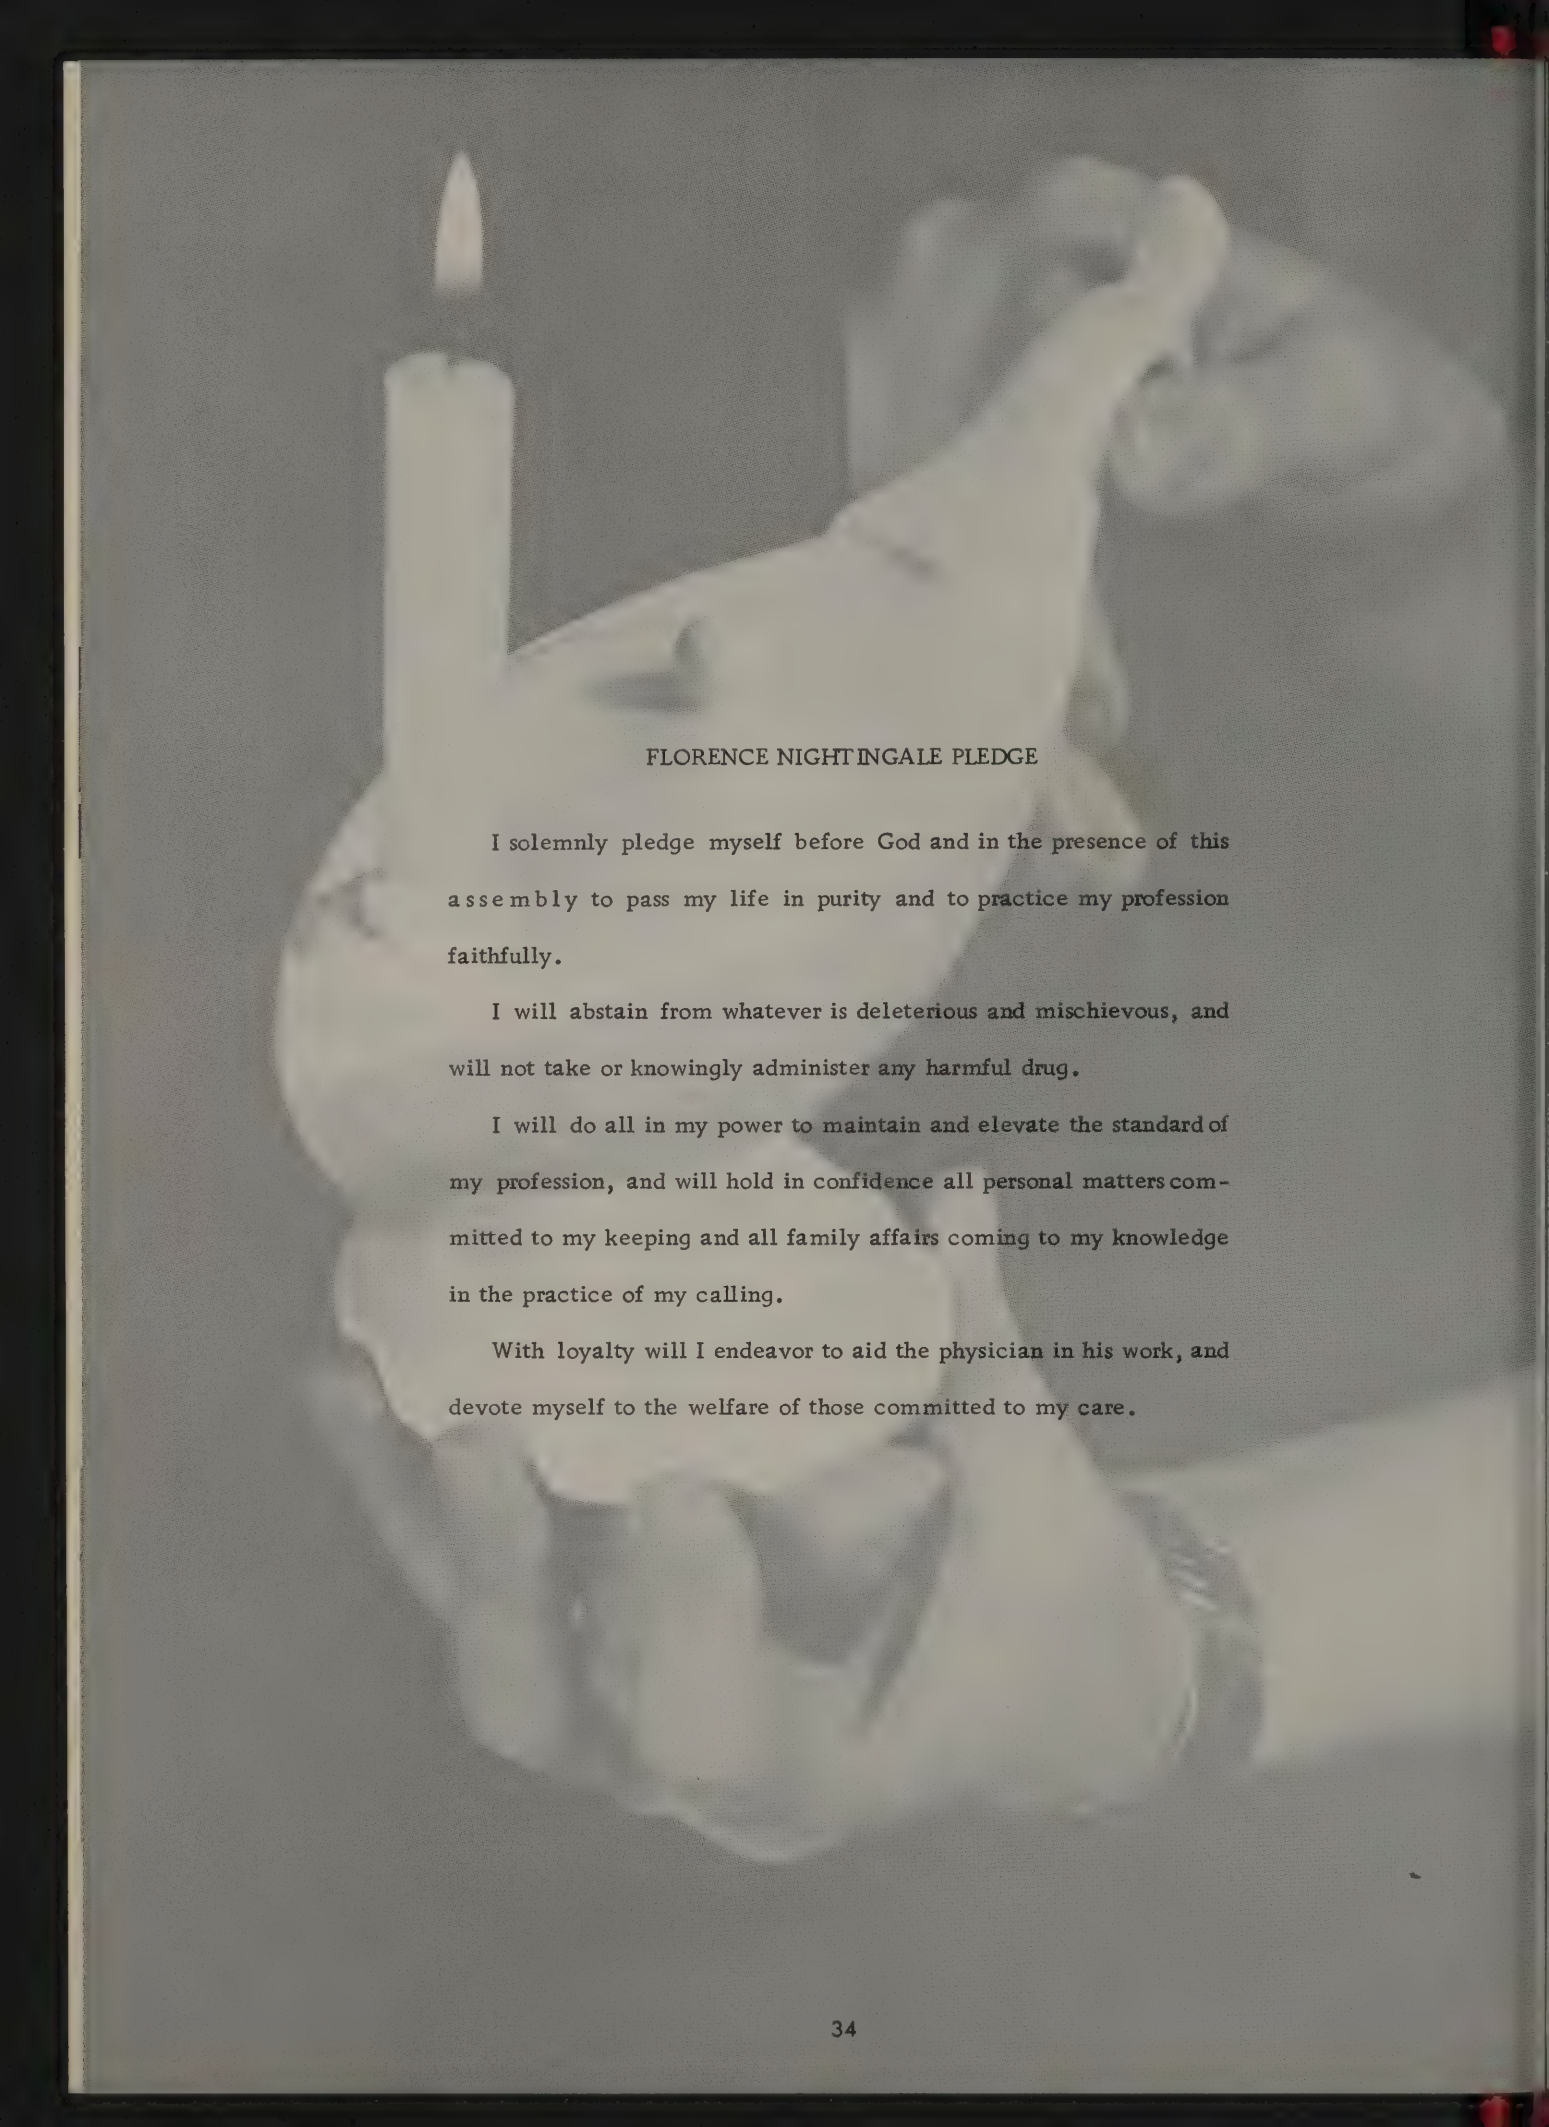

MRS. MARY GREENE

Home Care Service

This year a new service has been added to H. P. M. H. Under Miss Sarah Ingole's direction the Home Care Service helps the family to solve the problems that result when a patient still needing a limited amount of nursing care is discharged from the hospital.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE PLEDGE

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.

I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.

I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling.

With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Class History

History is made from simple, everyday happenings that might occur in the lives of anyone. To prove that point let us turn back the pages of time and roll back the clouds of imagination that we might relive some of the cherished memories of past times at High Point Memorial Hospital.

We will always remember our first days on the halls. Everyone was filled with the apprehension of not knowing what to expect. As we look back now we can laugh at ourselves; for the things which seemed so hard then are now routine.

New experiences greeted us our junior year. Our specialities added variety as we hurried through the operating room, obstetrics, recovery room, and diet kitchen. Schedules were crowded with classes and night duty.

Also during our junior year we started working on money making projects for our Junior-Senior Banquet. The night of our Junior-Senior will always be one of our memorable highlights.

Then we began leaving for affiliations. Everyone was apprehensive at the thought of going to Children's Hospital, Chestnut Lodge or the Philadelphia Institute. Affiliations will always be the most memorable part of our training.

During our Senior Year our project was our yearbook, The Lighted Lamp. There was much hard work connected with this but when it finally went to press the hard work was forgotten and the pride of accomplishment felt.

And once more it is graduation time for the Seniors of High Point Memorial Hospital. Finally, graduation has come for us, the class of 1964; and we realize that, all too soon, our three-year quest for knowledge has ended. But time cannot stand still; progress is essential. The way in which we command the order of our lives from this day on will determine our future goals.

Jane Howell

Prophecy

Delusions, illusions, or hallucinations—call it what you like, but by gazing into her crystal ball, Madame Freud, sees the lighter side of the future for each member of the class of 1964.

The year is 1975, and we see Patsy "Hoss" Aldridge traveling through the Mid East with the Bob Hope Entertaining Group. She finds a great deal of pleasure in nursing the overseas troops and those who entertain them.

Judy Barnes is nursing in between babies, griping as usual, but still prodding on.

Rosie Boedicker finally got her B. S., PhD., in nursing but discovered there is more satisfaction in sewing, and is now chief seamstress at Belks.

Bobbie Chriscoe found that sterile technique comes in handy for cotton picking.

Shirley Davis is now a medical missionary in South Africa, inviting all the natives to her tent meetings.

Annette Essick has just appeared in "Who's Who in American Women", still prim and proper in her nursing.

Brenda Franklin is happy flying high with her Air Force guy.

Winona Gibson is teaching Pediatrics at Children's Hospital and looking for her third husband.

Sandy Henry stays busy cooking T. V. dinners for her man, and working on her days off.

Jane Howell is private duty nurse for Cacious Clay. She is the only singing Nightingale we produced.

Gaynell Cromer Kearns is helping Billy to boost the embalming business.

Fran Kennedy is Department Store Nurse Supervisor at Prago-Guyes.

Beth Lamar is married to a Russian doctor, and working 11-7 behind the Iron Curtain.

Sylvia Lowder is a reporter for Nursing Outlook, spreading her unwanted opinion all over the U. S.

Gladys Rummage has just published her latest novel called "Reaction-Formation". She works as an office nurse between best sellers.

Judy Sale is traveling with the Peace Corps, and she has just opened up a Rathskeller in Outer Mongolea.

Emily Smith is Director of Nursing in Asheboro and finally caught the man of her dreams.

Martha Tingen, now president of A. N. A., is trying to get better working hours for students, while working double shifts herself.

Susie Wicker is living in a beatnik pad in Greenwich Village and working as O. R. Supervisor in a local hospital.

That's it from Madame Freud. Can she be right? Let's hope so!

Last Will and Testament

We the members of the 1964 Senior Class of High Point Memorial Hospital, realizing that our days at our old Alma Mater are rapidly drawing to a close, and being of sound mind and body, do hereby make and bequeath to the aftermentioned, our legal and rightful heirs, this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

We will our gratitude and devotion to those who have been guiding lights to us, our parents. They have taken part in our joys and sorrows, no matter how they felt.

ARTICLE II

SECTION I: We bequeath to our Director of Education our utmost appreciation for her three years of wonderful guidance.
SECTION II: To our faculty, we leave our many thanks for their time and efforts to make each of us a success in life.

ARTICLE III

SECTION I: To the Juniors, we leave our title "Dignified Seniors" in hope that they will live up to it as well as we have.
SECTION II: We bequeath to the Freshmen the chance of being upperclassmen next year and all the privileges that go with it—but, where are they???
SECTION III: To both classes, we leave our quick wit and intelligence, hoping that some of each will rub off on them for the years to come.

ARTICLE IV

Individually, we bequeath the following:

I, Gaynell Cromer, do will all of my demerits and campus days to Nancy Inman in hopes that she will live up to them as well as I have.
I, Suzie Wicker, do leave the clothes dryer to "Daffy" Winecoff and her wet clothes.
I, Fran Kennedy, will my twenty four months of engagement to Gene McKinney.
I, Patsy Aldridge, leave my seat in front of the T. V. to Priscilla Jones.
I, Sylvia Lowder, leave my unappreciated opinions to Joyce Tisdale in hopes that they will be appreciated.
I, Winona Gibson, being of feeble body and questionable sanity, leave.
I, Judy Barnes, leave all the roaches in my room to Irene Brady hoping that she will get them before they get her.
I, Sandy Henry, leave all our good times on 4 West and our giggling sessions to Irene Brady in hopes she will enjoy her senior year.
I, Annette Essick, leave the Courier Tribune to Irene Brady in hopes she will read it and keep up with the Asheboro "gossip".
I, Rose Mary Boedicker, leave the "truck loads" of mail I have received while in training to Martha Wampler.
I, Jane Howell, leave all my problems to someone who is more understanding than I.
We, Beth Lamar and Martha Tingen, leave for greener pastures and better hunting grounds.
We, Judy Sale and Shryl Davis, leave our "go-fever" to Joyce Tisdale and Gene McKinney.
I, Brenda Franklin, leave my room messy, as usual.
I, Barbara Chriscoe, leave my figure trimming exercises to Diffie Winecoff.
I, Gladys Rummage, leave my late dates to Becky Vickery.
I, Emily Smith, leave the "Rec" room reluctantly.

ARTICLE V

Lastly we do appoint Miss Juanita Yarborough to be the sole administrator of this will and instruct her to carry out to the letter of the law the aforementioned articles. In her witness and in the witness of the students of HPMH, we, the Senior Class, have set our hand and seal on this, the eleventh day of September in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-four.

A NURSE'S PRAYER

Because the day that stretches out for me
Is full of busy hours, I come to Thee
To ask Thee, Lord, that Thou wilt see me through
The many things that I may have to do.

Help me to make my beds the smoothest way.
Help me to make more tempting every tray.
Help me to sense when pain must have relief.
Help me to deal with those borne down by grief.

Help me to take to every patient's room
The Light of Life to brighten up the gloom.
Help me to bring to every soul in fear
The sure and steadfast thought that Thou are near.

And if today, or, if tonight, maybe,
Some patient in my care set out to sea
To face the great adventure we call death,
Sustain them, Father, in their parting breath.

Help me to live throughout this live-long day
As one who loves Thee well, dear Lord, I pray,
And when the day is done, and evening stars
Shine through the dark above the sunset bars,
When weary quite, I turn to seek my rest,
Lord, may I truly know I've done my best.
